Other October Dates

Kingdomtide (Liturgical color: Green) August 27th—December 2nd

Kingdomtide begins on the last Sunday in August and continues until the beginning of Advent, which starts on the fourth Sunday before Christmas. The liturgical color is green. During this season, emphasis is placed on the kingship of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The observance is wrapped up in the heightened awareness of one of the basics of the Christian faith the hope of the coming of the Kingdom of Heaven. The importance of Kingdomtide is overshadowed by the fact that this period contains key Sunday's on the Christian calendar. For example, Labor Day Sunday, Reformation Sunday, World Peace Sunday, and Thanksgiving Day are but a few of the days observed. Christ the King Sunday is the last Sunday in the Christian Year. This day celebration emphasizes the consummation of all things as Christ returns King and Ruler over all things. Symbols of royalty such as the crown and orb should be used to emphasize Christ as ruler of all. White is the appropriate color for Christ the King Sunday.
